STATE PAGEANTS

Entrant must first participate in a State Pageant before qualifying for the National Pageant. State entrants agree to look solely to the pageant director with respect to all matters relating to her application, rules, regulations, policies, rehearsal, performance and selection process and all other matters relating to the State Pageant. ANTSO, its officers, agents and employees are not liable to entrant for anything whatsoever in connection with the State Pageant.

Entrant agrees to attend the National Pageant if selected as the winner in a State Pageant and further abide by all the required services, rules and regulations governing this pageant.

A Note to Parents: Now in our 40th year of "Crowning the Future Today," America's National Teenager Scholarship Organization is one of the oldest scholarship programs for teens in the United States. Sponsor monies are used for competition and participant expenses. Our program is scholarship- and leadership-based and does not require a swimsuit or talent competition.
